

CLC WORKSHOP FOR INTERPRETER TRAINING SERIES

Medical Terminology in Pediatric Cancer (SPANISH/ENGLISH)

Instructor: Sebastián C. Jiménez

May 11, 2023 | 11 am - 2 pm | In-person or Remote
Aurora Mental Health & Recovery
791 Chambers Road, Aurora, CO 80010
Ticket $60

This workshop will cover medical terminology related to pediatric cancer that is likely to be encountered in the medical setting while being interpreted for the Spanish-speaking population, as well as some general information about the human body and systems that are most likely to be affected due by cancer.

KEY OBJECTIVES

- Gain general knowledge of the human body systems commonly involved in pediatric cancer
- Acquire an extensive medical terminology in pediatric cancer in Spanish and English
- Be familiar with the procedures typically applied to diagnose and treat the most common types of pediatric cancer in the United States.
- Gain confidence and empathy by serving as a reliable interpreter of this important topic.

TARGET AUDIENCE SPANISH <> ENGLISH SPEAKERS

Including: experienced and aspiring interpreters, bilingual health care providers, bilingual case workers, bilingual High School/College graduates interested in pursuing a career in health care field and would like to utilize their Spanish language ability.

To register: www.ColoradoLanguageConnection.org/bridging-the-gap