LIVE WEBINAR:
CRIMINAL LAW LEGAL TERMINOLOGY & COURT SYSTEM
WORKSHOP FOR INTERPRETERS SERIES

This workshop is designed to provide an introduction to the criminal justice system and to help interpreters gain a better understanding of the criminal justice system and the legal terminologies used in courtrooms and attorney offices.

At the conclusion of this workshop, interpreters will be able to understand:
- The process of criminal justice system (e.g., filing of charges, beginning of court proceeding, plea negotiation, sentencing, appeal, etc.)
- Different types of court - municipal, county, district, appellate, and supreme court
- The definitions of some common crimes - assault, DUI/DWAI, burglary/theft/robbery, Domestic Violence, etc.

This workshop is ideal for aspiring and working interpreters interested in becoming legal interpreters. Interpreters at all levels are welcomed to attend the workshop.

This workshop has been approved for 3.0 CEU by the Office of Language Access Office of the Colorado State Court Administrator

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR:
Harry Budisidharta is the Executive Director of Asian Pacific Development Center, a nonprofit serving the immigrant and refugee communities in Colorado. Harry worked as a public defender in Adams County Public Defender’s Office prior to forming his own law firm specializing in criminal defense. Harry was awarded the Outstanding Young Attorney Award by the Arapahoe County Bar Association and Asian Pacific American Bar Association. He was also the chair of the training committee within Colorado Criminal Defense Bar Association, and was responsible for organizing trainings for hundreds of criminal defense attorneys throughout Colorado.